GENERAL INFORMATION AND PROCEDURES

This form provides information about our counseling relationship, procedures involved, and your authorized consent to treatment.

Length of Session: Sessions are scheduled for 45-50 minutes.

Cancellations: Your session time is reserved for you and is taken seriously. Except for emergencies, cancellations must be made 24 hours in advance to avoid being charged. You will be charged $75.00 for no shows and late cancellations.

Fee Structure: The client is financially responsible for payment of fees, which will be collected at the time of service. The client will also be responsible for any portion of fees not reimbursed or covered by health insurance. In the event of an accrued balance, the client and therapist can negotiate a payment schedule.

Confidentiality: Information shared in session is held in strictest confidence according to federal law (Regulation 42 CFT Part 2). Exceptions include: legal obligations (such as child abuse, elder abuse, testimony requires by a judge, personal danger to self or an identifiable victim); information provided to parents if the client is as minor; and consultation with supervising professionals. Advice may be elicited from professional peers in regard to your case, without revealing identity. Release of information to another professional may be done only with your written consent.

Client Privacy: Recent laws have been enacted for client privacy. It is important to know that emails and mobile phone conversations are not secure or guaranteed of privacy because they can be potentially intercepted. Therefore, by signing this document you understand that if we have correspondence by email or mobile phone, there is a potential for confidentiality to be comprised.

Counseling Approach: To get the most of counseling of therapy, it is important to assume responsibility for your experience. Therapists can only help you based on the information you provide. If you are like most people, you probably have some sensitive issues you are not comfortable discussing with others. Those are usually the things you most need to talk about with your therapist. Regular, consistent participation in treatment sessions, as well as any "homework" assignments will help facilitate the process, but no therapist can ethically guarantee achievement of your goals. Please feel free to ask questions about the process and let your therapist know if you are not satisfied with how it is progressing. Because of the nature of the therapeutic process, you may experience periods of emotional discomfort on the way to your goals. No single therapist is the best one for every client. If you do not feel your therapist is the right fit for you, we will be happy to help you with another referral in this or another office. You are free to discontinue treatment at any time. Deborah Feinsilver, LPC recommends to notify her in advance, when the client is ready to end the counseling relationship, a closing session, for a healthy relationship closer.

Court Appearance Policy: In the event of requesting the therapist serving you or your family member to appear in court, there is an up-front non-refundable retainer of $3500.00. The retainer is for one case and will expire in one calendar year. The retainer will be debited at a rate of $250/hour in 15minute increments. At such time that the balance of the retainer falls below $300.00, a conference will occur to determine whether additional funds will be needed to compete the work. Additional funds will occur in amounts of $800.00, and are also non-refundable. If I determine that the process creates a dual relationship, I reserve the right to terminate the therapeutic relationship with appropriate referrals made.

As a client, I have read, understood and agree to the terms and conditions of the information presented in this form as I enter into therapeutic process.

NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES

This notice describes how medical information about you may be used and disclosed and how you can get access to this information. Please review it carefully.

The Health Insurance Portability & Accountability Act of 1996 (“HIPAA”) is a federal program that requires that all medical records and other individually identifiable health information used or disclosed by us in any form, whether electronically, on paper, or orally, are kept properly confidential. This Act gives you, the patient, significant new rights to understand and control how your health information is used. “HIPAA” provides penalties for covered entities that misuse personal information.

As required by “HIPAA”, we have prepared this explanation of how we are required to maintain the privacy of your health information and how we may use and disclose your health information.

We may use and disclose your medical records only for each of the following purposes: treatment, payment, and health care options.

- Treatment means providing, coordinating, or managing health care and related services by one or more health care providers. An example of this would include a physical examination.
- Payment means such activities as obtaining reimbursement for services, confirming coverage, billing or collection activities, and utilization review. An example of this would be sending a bill for your visit to your insurance company for payment.
- Health care operations include the business aspects of running our practice, such as conducting quality assessment and improvement of activities, auditing functions, cost-management analysis, and customer service. An example would be an internal quality assessment review.

We may also create and distribute de-identified health information by removing all references to individually identifiable information.

We may contact you to provide appointment reminders or information about treatment alternatives or other health-related benefits and services that may be of interest to you.

Any other uses and disclosures will be made only with your written authorization. You may revoke such authorization in writing and we are required to honor and abide by that written request, except to the extent that we have already taken actions relying on your authorization.

You have the following rights with respect to your protected health information, which you can exercise by presenting a written request to the Privacy Officer:

- The right to request restrictions on certain uses and disclosures of protected health information, including those related to disclosures to family members, other relatives, close personal friends, or any other person identified by you. We are, however, not required to agree to a requested restriction. If we do agree to a restriction, we must abide by it unless you agree in writing to remove it.
- The right to reasonable requests to receive confidential communications of protected health information from us by alternative means or at alternative locations.
- The right to inspect and copy your protected health information.
- The right to amend your protected health information.
- The right to receive an accounting of disclosures of protected health information.
- The right to obtain a paper copy of this notice from us upon request.

Client Rights/Confidentiality services will be rendered in a professional manner consistent with accepted legal and ethical standards. Information about you that is obtained during counseling sessions will not be revealed to anyone else without your consent except where disclosure is required by law. These instances include:

- Where there is reasonable suspicion of physical/sexual abuse to children or elderly persons
- Where you present a serious danger to yourself or others
- Where a court orders the counselor to disclose information
- If at any time for any reason you are dissatisfied with our services, please let us know. We also reserve the right for consultation with other professionals whenever believed necessary.

We are required by law to maintain the privacy of your protected health information and to provide you with notice on our legal duties and privacy practices with respect to protected health information. (Continued on page 6)

This notice is effective as of April 14, 2003 and we are required to abide by the terms of the Notice of Privacy Practices currently in effect. We reserve the right to change the terms of our Notice of Privacy Practices and to make the new notice provisions effective for all protected health information that we maintain. We will post and you may request a written copy of a revised Notice of Privacy Practices from this office.

You have recourse if you feel that your privacy protections have been violated. You have the right to file written complaint with our office, or with the Department of Health & Human Services, Office of Civil Rights, about violations of the provisions of this notice or the policies and procedures of our office. We will not retaliate against you for filing a complaint.

Notice of Privacy Practices Acknowledgement

I understand that, under the Health Insurance Portability & Accountability Act of 1996 (HIPAA), I have certain rights to privacy regarding my protected health information. I understand that this information can and will be used to:

- Conduct, plan, and direct my treatment and follow-up among the multiple healthcare providers who may be involved in that treatment directly.
- Obtain payment from third-party payers.
- Conduct normal healthcare operations such as quality assessments and physician certification.

I have received, read, and understand your Notice of Privacy Practices containing a more complete description of the uses and disclosures of my health information. I understand that this organization has the right to change its Notice of Privacy Practices from time to time and that I may contact this organization at any time at the address above to obtain a current copy of the Notice of Privacy Practices.

I understand that I may request in writing that you restrict how my private information is used or disclosed to carry out treatment, payment or healthcare operations. I also understand you are not required to agree to my requested restrictions, but if you do agree then you are bound to abide by such restrictions.
